

EURA 2020 CONFERENCE

Contradictions Shaping Urban Futures

Call for Papers & Panels!

Next year's EURA conference will be take place in the Norwegian capital of Oslo on June 15 - 17. The Norwegian Institute for Urban and Regional Research at Oslo Metropolitan University now invite scholars in the fields of urban research to submit proposals for panels and papers to next year's conference programme.

At a time when an increasing share of the global population is living in urban areas, there is a need to re-examine the role(s) which cities take in coping with contemporary challenges and contradictions.

Deadline for papers: December 3 2019

Deadline for panels: November 1 2019

Tracks

1. Wealth vs. poverty
2. Sustainable vs. unsustainable urban development and growth vs degrowth
3. Representative democracy vs. network governance vs. populism
4. Inclusionary and tolerant vs. exclusionary and intolerant cities
5. The multiethnic urban community vs. the ethnically divided city
6. Creative urban methods

www.eura2020.org

OSLOMET

